

Transit PLUTO sextile natal Jupiter

Mar 31 through May 1, 2006

The influence surrounding you during this period is not strong or dynamic enough to cause much change unless it is supplemented by the occurrence of other factors and circumstances that encourage its energy and particular focus. The energy of the influence is favorable, however, and is represented by an opportunity to gain power or control, to revitalize or renovate something that has been lost, or to make a new start. Knowing there is a certain amount of favorable energy available, it is then up to you to be on the lookout for possibilities that may come along, and to take advantage of them when they do. You can also use the people and circumstances you encounter to create your own opportunities. All that has just been described relates during this period on the one hand to your personal sense of optimism and inspiration, and on the other hand, to your interest in such areas as higher education, politics, advertising, publishing, drama, diplomacy, religion, cultural pursuits and projects, philanthropy and endowment-- and to situations that will eventually lead to your participation or success in these areas.

Transit MARS square natal Sun

Mar 31 through Apr 4, exact on Apr 2

You may be touchier than usual when others impinge on your territory, challenge your authority, and question your methods. Whether you stick to your way of doing things or decide to follow the suggestions of others, your desire for personal accomplishment is apt to be very strong during this period. You seek ego-gratification from the final result of your efforts, not from the methods you used to accomplish it. Tension may rise when dealing with male companions or co-workers. Under this influence, the success of your efforts is likely to be delayed as a consequence of actions that are unnecessarily aggressive or too hasty. Having found a way to restrain these tendencies, and applying determination and patience, you will accomplish far more than you anticipated. During this period take precautions in all your physical efforts in order to avoid injury to your head or face, or putting too much strain on your heart and spine.

Transit SATURN trine natal Saturn

Mar 31 through May 5, station on Apr 5

Though this is a generally fortunate period, there is nothing much to be said of the certainty of benefiting from favorable circumstances or wild strikes of good luck. You may, however, expect to gain some satisfaction of finding that past reliance on work, tradition, and organization now puts you in touch with like-minded people and situations and thus a certain stability is formed. Your life style seems more comfortable.

Transit MARS trine natal Jupiter

Apr 7 through Apr 11, exact on Apr 9

Unless negative circumstances also occur at this time and discourage the otherwise potential benefits of this period, your general status will greatly improve. Success is apt to be the result of just about anything you attempt. Efforts rarely come to nothing under this influence. Even a failed effort is likely to result in some better prospect. This is definitely the time to promote and demonstrate the position and knowledge you have achieved. You are highly favored in activities that involve long-distance travel, writing, publishing, theater, dance, art, religion, politics, law, investment and finances, and sports. Gambles and other risk-taking ventures are likely to pay off. Men in your life, especially a male parent, are also favored at this time-- and your own good fortune may also come through them. This is a period in which to grab and savor everything that brings enjoyment, humor, truth, and the good life. Do not however, let overconfidence in your own ability, the pursuit of pleasure, or laziness spoil the potential success of enterprises.

Transit MARS sextile natal Uranus

Apr 14 through Apr 17, exact on Apr 16

Physical circumstances during this period may give you a chance to introduce a change or new concepts into some aspect of your life or the lives of others. This influence implies opportunity to take advantage of new or nontraditional methods, as well as situations that give you a chance to demonstrate unique methods that you have devised. Other potentials include circumstances that allow you to change current methods, machinery, or mechanical devices in such a way that more people will be able to take advantage of them. Either that, or you have a chance to benefit from such changes that were made by others. Taking advantage of the energy of this influence, you may be able to inspire and coordinate group efforts to accomplish certain tasks.

Transit MARS square natal Mercury

Apr 17 through Apr 21, exact on Apr 19

Too much haste or aggressiveness causes tempers to flare. Expect to encounter argumentative males, aggressive drivers, and frustration when trying to put ideas into action or implement new work methods. Check your work place for faulty wiring and possible fire hazards. Wrong directions, bad weather, and other physical obstacles can slow you down when traveling or interfere with the flow of information and other communications. During this period caution is advised to prevent possible burns or cuts, especially to your fingers and hands. In spite of all these potential problems, there is abundant and stimulating energy available. Even if initially aroused by anger or frustration, this energy can, with just a little effort, be rechanneled into positive accomplishments.

Transit MARS square natal Saturn

Apr 19 through Apr 22, exact on Apr 21

The difficulties and delays you encounter during this period are likely to be caused by lack of preparation, planning, and organization--either on your part or that of others. The maddening thing is that even if you are the most careful individual, you are apt to be caught just when things are in disarray, or, just when you need something, it cannot be located in time. Bad timing is, in fact, one of the biggest obstacles to progress. Under this influence others may physically resist or even threaten your seniority or position of authority-- nor are you likely to take it graciously when they do. The best part of the present circumstances is the potential that you will eventually succeed, even if it is because maturity and experience dictates that you keep on going until everything goes as it should.

Transit MARS sextile natal Neptune

Apr 25 through Apr 29, exact on Apr 27

This is a period to look for opportunities that expand your spiritual and artistic awareness and allow you to develop and use your intuitive abilities. Taking advantage of the people and situations you encounter under this influence, may lead to more mundane opportunities including a chance to go swimming, fishing, sailing, or dancing. Depending on your particular interests and the nature of circumstances at this time, your efforts may mean eventual success in activities that involve such areas as promotion, photography, magic, illusion, oil or gas industries, charitable institutions, bankruptcy proceedings, art and entertainment. The only problem you encounter during this period may be in distinguishing genuine opportunities from false or misleading promises. Be as astute as you can under the circumstances.

Transit MARS square natal Venus

May 11 through May 14, exact on May 13

Social activities, partnership, cooperative efforts, romantic adventures, diplomatic maneuvers, and legal negotiations can be successful under this influence, but the potential is that these endeavors will not proceed altogether smoothly. Jealousy, envy, and insensitivity are factors that must be avoided or eliminated when they appear. Another way to minimize the negative potential of this period is to tone down aggressiveness and promote an impression of harmony and cooperation. If life were to imitate art under this influence, the message would be not to choose colors that blend, instead choose colors that go well because of the contrast they make with each other. There is much that can be stimulating and exciting in the course of your physical efforts and interactions with others during this period.

Transit MARS trine natal Sun

May 22 through May 25, exact on May 23

This can be an ego-boosting period in which you feel more confident that your efforts will be successful. In turn, this is the kind of attitude that attracts the people and success you are looking for. Self-promotion works very well, as does using the efforts of others to your own advantage. Other potentials imply that your physical efforts--whatever they may be-- may bring you recognition or a position of leadership, and that you may be more generous in helping others. Though this influence increases vitality, it can also promote a certain amount of laziness. If you are by nature a less-than-energetic individual, this period is not likely to galvanize you into action. It may be your good fortune however, to get others to do the work for you. Some of the most highly favored activities include those that involve men or products and services related to men, military maneuvers, sports, surgical procedures, manufacturing, and firearms. Just plain good luck can save you from accidents and other mishaps. The only word of warning is not to take things too much for granted, or become too sure of yourself.

Transit MARS sextile natal Pluto

May 24 through May 27, exact on May 26

Intense energy in the present circumstances represents opportunity for you to gain a more powerful position of one sort or another. Your efforts may lead, for instance, to increased physical strength, more control over your actions, and greater resourcefulness. This period is a chance to put more concentration into your efforts, whatever they are. Taking advantage of the people and circumstances you encounter, may increase the potential for your ultimate success in activities that involve research and investigation, renovation, recycling, and the analysis and investment of financial assets.

Transit URANUS square natal Moon

Apr 24 through Jul 12, exact on May 27 & Jul 12

This period is apt to mean instability with regard to home and family, as well as a certain amount of confusion in your emotional life in general. Circumstances are unpredictable and what may be worse, they are not likely to be under your control. It is the actions and decisions of others that intrude on your commitment to relationships and the amount of involvement you are willing to devote to other personal endeavors. The only options left open to you are to control your reactions to a situation and, of course, the way you choose to handle it. To describe the potential circumstances of this period as a test is appropriate since that is all it may be. This influence does not necessarily signal an end to your relationships and your desires or the chance to fulfill them, but it can cause you to be confused about them. Probably the best advice is to stay flexible in the face of changing circumstances. Hold on to what has always been and continue to be a source of emotional satisfaction. Your health may be affected by increased restlessness, nerves, irritability, and digestive disorders. Children in your life are apt to be unpredictable, you may experience sudden separation from them, or they may be difficult to control. Under this influence it is better to regard the status of relationships, emotional commitments, domestic arrangements, and even where you reside as vulnerable to sudden or unexpected changes. If possible avoid taking important actions that will influence your future happiness, since these changes may not be as permanent as you anticipate.

Transit MARS opposed natal Mars

May 27 through May 31, exact on May 29

The biggest potential of this period is that you may have to constantly cope with people whose actions and purposes are diametrically opposed to your own. Under this influence your attempts to physically accomplish something may be appropriately compared to hitting your head against the proverbial stone wall. Making little or no headway, you'll end up wondering why you ever wasted your energy in the first place. Nor will you succeed any better with a show of strength or aggressiveness, since these efforts are apt to be met with an equally determined exhibition of force. It may be difficult to sustain any controlled or stable physical efforts at this time, but things may be easier for you if do not waste what energy you have with anything but the most routine, quietly carried out tasks.

Transit MARS trine natal Mercury

Jun 7 through Jun 10, exact on Jun 8

A surge of physical energy and enthusiasm may prompt you to turn thoughts or ideas into actions--the results of which can be very successful. Sales, installation and repair of machinery or equipment are highly favored. Sales of any kind are likely to be more energetic and successful. This also applies to travel, activities and meetings, and the physical dissemination of information. Work that is done or business that is owned or operated by you and/or your siblings is likely to flourish at this time, especially if the job or business is in your neighborhood. Under this influence good fortune or good news comes through the mail or by telephone. This is an auspicious period for writing, designing, buying a car or other motorized vehicles, or developing your mechanical or computer skills.

Transit SATURN square natal Neptune

May 29 through Jun 19, exact on Jun 9

Be wary of being led down the garden path by false hopes or false promises. If you are not one to be easily taken in, you may not be particularly affected by this influence, but it is wise to be mindful that some deception or disillusionment in your general circumstances is possible during this period. Imposing reality and structure on ideas and situations that are incompatible or severely discouraged by such limitations will not work out to anyone's advantage or satisfaction. Such obstacles are likely to be temporary, eventually overcome by determination and accomplishment.

Transit MARS trine natal Saturn

Jun 9 through Jun 12, exact on Jun 10

You are apt to have more patience during this period. If you require more time to accomplish a certain task, it will be granted. Maturity and experience behind your actions is one of the keys to the successful results they bring. If you fail to apply such wisdom in a given situation, you may nevertheless benefit from the actions of those who do. This is one of the most favorable of influences-- not only for the potential success of your efforts but because they are likely to be meaningful, long-lasting accomplishments. It is an auspicious time to initiate projects that are geared toward bringing benefits at a later time in your life.

Transit MARS square natal Neptune

Jun 15 through Jun 18, exact on Jun 16

Your actions during this period may very well be inspired, but they are not apt to be organized, well-planned or carefully executed. The shortest distance between two points is not likely to be the expected straight line. The present atmosphere is not conducive to logical actions, though you may find plenty of rationalizations for the actions you do take. You will have to make a determined effort if you wish to avoid wasting time and energy. Methods used to accomplish something must depend on intuition and instinct, since there may be little else to go on. Under this influence there is a certain amount of danger due to inattention, or because you may simply be unaware of potentially perilous situations. Laziness is another potential obstacle you may have to overcome.

Transit MARS trine natal Moon

Jun 26 through Jun 29, exact on Jun 27

Your personal environment is likely to be pretty smooth during this period. Schedules are not interrupted, machinery hums along as it should, everyone does what they are supposed to, and tasks are accomplished on time and with little effort. Creativity and imagination are enhanced. Your actions are more apt to be guided by instinct and intuition. Efforts related to home, family and nutrition are not only successful but emotionally satisfying. This is an excellent time for planting seeds. Activities involving or related to women and babies are highly favored. Under this influence you do not feel the need to compete with anyone, not even yourself. If something comes along that you enjoy you will have plenty of enthusiasm and energy to pursue it.

Transit MARS trine natal Venus

Jun 30 through Jul 3, exact on Jul 1

Unless negative circumstances also happen to occur and strongly indicate caution, this is an excellent time for a haircut, beauty treatment, dental work, or cosmetic surgery. Under this influence your actions and gestures are likely to be more graceful and elegant; literally as well as figuratively. The social scene is abuzz and everyone is animated and attractive. Romance, partnership, and other alliances flourish. This is a time to do things with others-- cooperative efforts may be able to accomplish what you have not been able to do by yourself. Activities that involve art, design, music, jewelry, flowers, the beauty business, debate, and legal matters are favored.

Transit MARS square natal Pluto

Jul 12 through Jul 15, exact on Jul 14

Power struggles, jealousy, and revenge may be the guiding forces behind some pretty intense activities during this period. Past actions may cause obstacles that must be overcome before current actions can succeed. Anger, if it is aroused under this influence, can be formidably destructive. Transformed into positive energy, it can result in formidable accomplishments.

Transit MARS opposed natal Jupiter

Jul 17 through Jul 20, exact on Jul 18

It is easy to imagine the probable result of blowing up a balloon beyond its capacity. This image is also the easiest description of the circumstances you are likely to encounter during this period. There is a tendency to assume you are capable of far greater abilities than a more honest estimation would suggest-- or, knowing full well your real limitations, it may be a case of your simply giving in to some external pressure or temptation and allowing others to make such inflated assumptions of your capabilities-- either way, you are left trying to accomplish the impossible. Under this influence actions are likely to go too fast and too far. It is in your best interests to remember that there is more than a little potential for unpleasant results if you experience too much of a good thing. This is not an auspicious time for court decisions, traveling abroad, higher education, writing, publishing, and participating in competitive sports. Physical efforts are either totally paralyzed by laziness and unwise actions, or they proceed with such extreme force as to invite dangerous consequences. Spirituality can turn into fanaticism, and intellectuality can become arrogant displays of superiority. Save grandstanding and bravado for another time.

Transit MARS conjoined natal Uranus

Jul 23 through Jul 26, exact on Jul 24

The actions of others during this period may inspire you positively or negatively (there's no telling which) to do something quite out of character. Energetic vibrations in the general atmosphere may urge you to emphasize your own uniqueness or nontraditional approach to things. Of course, the reverse may also be true, and you will encounter some fairly unusual or nontraditional people and circumstances. There are other potentials. Under this influence, there may be more enthusiasm and energy in friendships and in your participation in groups and organizations. You may develop or be introduced to new techniques and methods. You may have increased enthusiasm for nontraditional or occult subjects as well as more traditional topics such as history, sociology, finance, and antiques.

Transit MARS trine natal Neptune

Aug 2 through Aug 5, exact on Aug 4

This is a period to use your intuitive abilities, increase your spiritual awareness, investigate dreams and the occult, and carry out as much of your work and other physical activities as possible behind the scenes. Exactly how or by what means some task or achievement is accomplished may not be apparent, nor does it have to be. The successful result such actions are likely to produce will be clear enough to make everybody happy. Some of the most successful work and other physical activities during this period involve in one aspect or another such areas as arts and entertainment (especially dance), photography, charitable institutions, drugs, alcohol, oil, gas, marine life, water sports, and ocean cruises.

Transit SATURN trine natal Moon

Jul 28 through Aug 12, exact on Aug 4

The potential of this period is fortunate. Though it does not rule out the possibility of an astounding piece of exciting luck, the odds favor a more quiet, but extremely beneficial time. Emotional levels can be high and stimulating, but more likely to be unusually content and reflective. This is a period to use the maturity and experiences you have developed to decide present actions and plan for the future. Decisions made and actions taken under the present influence will no doubt be successful. It is also a good period to gain and to apply patience and understanding to help solidify emotional commitments that you give as well as those you receive. Under this influence fortunate consequences are likely to accompany activities related to nutrition, home, domestic items, real estate, women, babies and young children, and historical preservation. To take maximum advantage of this positive period fulfilling long-term needs should be more of a priority than seeking instant gratification. For the most part, the routine of your everyday affairs as well as the functioning of physical and mechanical systems will run smoothly and efficiently. Supervisors, authority figures, and those more mature and experienced than you may be the means of your good fortune through their assistance or advice.

Transit MARS square natal Moon

Aug 13 through Aug 16, exact on Aug 14

Things are not as apt to run smoothly during this period. Equipment falters or breaks down, causing frustration and delay. Encountering traffic jams is a strong possibility, especially if you are homeward bound and/or children or household errands are the reason for being out in the first place. Accidents or temper tantrums waste more time. Under this influence you may suffer from digestive complaints-- the likely consequences of anger, frustration, or eating too fast. Care should be taken not to arouse antagonism in male relationships. Check your home for possible fire hazards. Disagreement between family members, whether or not the arguments involve you, can be enough to send you somewhere else until things quiet down. When cooking or baking be sure to check the time and temperature you use, or your food may be overdone, or even burned. Even with all the potential for trouble and frustration, it is nevertheless possible to accomplish quite a bit. Things may get done because of rather than in spite of the obstacles that must be overcome.

Transit SATURN trine natal Venus

Aug 16 through Sep 1, exact on Aug 24

Those who are older find you very appealing and attractive. Entertain them. Socialize with them. Everyone will benefit in the nicest possible way. Romance, partnership, female relationships, and joint ventures are highly favored during this period. A long-established alliance will benefit in various ways, not the least of which may be because it manages to still exist. If marriage, romance, business partnership, social contact, or friendship is initiated under the present influence, it is certain to have the best chance for longevity and fruitful consequences. Beauty treatments, and decorating, design, or art projects undertaken during this period are likely to have long-lasting and successful results. Social and diplomatic gestures are not apt to be insincere or flimsy. This may be thought of as an excellent period in which to mix business and pleasure.

Transit MARS opposed natal Sun

Aug 27 through Aug 30, exact on Aug 29

There is a distinct possibility that you will encounter ego-bruising opposition to your actions at this time. While failure doesn't have to be the final result, this influence does threaten complete success. In the unlikely event that such success does occur, it is likely to be accompanied by loss of integrity. The opinions, and especially the actions of others, are not likely to support your leadership, and indeed, they may directly challenge it. Under this influence vitality and enthusiasm are either lacking or quickly burn out, leaving you with nothing to fuel further efforts. Male relationships may be strained at this time-- possibly by anger or too much competitiveness. Even if you are someone who has no trouble rising to challenges, this period is better suited to keeping a low profile and making plans for a more fortuitous time. Avoid being in the sun too long and activities that put a strain on your heart or spine or that can result in injuries to your head or face.

Transit MARS trine natal Pluto

Aug 29 through Sep 1, exact on Aug 30

Research and investigation flourish during this period. You can really get to the bottom of things with the help of the intense, focused energy that surrounds you. Psychological analysis, assessment of property, and financial investments are infused with a physical focus that gives keener perception to the intellectual efforts involved in these matters. Under this influence you have all the control you need if you do not take it for granted, and you recognize how to apply its subtle but deadly accurate force. Your recuperative powers, should you need them, are at a high level.

Transit MARS trine natal Mars

Sep 1 through Sep 4, exact on Sep 3

You are surrounded by an abundance of free and easygoing energy during this period. If you need help getting things done, it will appear. People you encounter are apt to be applying their physical efforts toward the same or very similar goals. Obstacles in your path are few or nonexistent. Under this influence you can make one effort fit neatly into the next one--resulting in a series of accomplishments. It is also a time when your physical actions--whatever their purpose-- may have the fortunate consequence of putting you in the right place at the right time.

Transit PLUTO square natal Sun

Jul 25 through Oct 15, station on Sep 4

This long-term influence is likely to bring difficult but not insurmountable circumstances, the nature of which involves overcoming those with more power than your own, a new start or regaining something that was lost, or dealing with the threatened loss of your own power or influence. This is a period when much strength and other benefits may be gained but not without some frustrations or setbacks that test your inner drive and determination, humble your egotistical attitudes and ambitions, and challenge your integrity and generosity.

Transit MARS opposed natal Mercury

Sep 11 through Sep 14, exact on Sep 13

During this period your mental processes are apt to become paralyzed by too much tension in your physical environment. Intellectual efforts such as writing, teaching, and designing are not apt to be successful--that is, if they get anywhere at all. Your plans and ideas are likely to be opposed or dismissed out of hand. Nor is it a favorable time to participate in meetings or discussions since they are apt to be disrupted by angry words, too-hasty exclamations, and an altogether unsatisfactory stream of communications. Under this influence neighbors and/or siblings may turn into temporary opponents. Bad weather is only one potential that makes this an inauspicious time to begin travel of any kind, or even to run a few neighborhood errands. Machinery and equipment refuse to cooperate or break down entirely. There is danger to your hands and fingers as well as the risk of respiratory infections. Move cautiously in all situations. Keep in mind this is a relatively short period--and one that is best spent in concerted efforts to stay out of harm's way.

Transit MARS opposed natal Saturn

Sep 13 through Sep 16, exact on Sep 14

Any short cut you attempt in order to make things easier during this period is apt to have undesirable results. You may waste more time and energy trying to get around the rules than if you had just complied with them in the first place. You resist, perhaps even resent, the authority of others and what may be worse, you are just as likely to encounter the very same attitude in others should you try to impose your own authority. Under this influence attempts at organization or to put some structure and purpose into projects and other physical efforts are going to be difficult, and more than one task may be abandoned in discouragement. Delay turns into cancellation, and anger thwarts the prudent dictates of maturity and experience. A certain amount of caution is necessary since there is increased potential for accidents to your teeth or bones and flare-ups of chronic ailments.

Transit MARS sextile natal Moon

Sep 28 through Oct 1, exact on Sep 30

You may get the opportunity to turn feelings into physical actions or to physically express your emotions. If you are involved in creative or artistic activities your efforts now may ultimately lead to successful exhibitions of your work, to greater emotional satisfaction from physically expressing your talent, or a chance to successfully represent the talents of others. If your interest and instincts are aroused-- follow their lead. Current circumstances may bring a chance to promote family relationships and activities or to accomplish domestic tasks. Your children or other family members may be given an opportunity to work or to compete in sports events or other competition. Do not pass up the chance to invite male companions, family members, and business associates to dine. Avoid future problems with appliances and machinery by taking time now to repair them or provide the routine maintenance they require.

Transit MARS opposed natal Venus

Oct 2 through Oct 5, exact on Oct 4

Romance is not a likely or enjoyable prospect, nor for that matter are social activities or communications with co-workers, a partner, or other allies. This is not an auspicious time for marriage and other alliances or joint ventures-- and certainly not a period in which to initiate new ones. During this period everyone is apt to head in opposite directions with no thought of cooperation or willingness to compromise. Under this influence elegance and refined actions are overwhelmed or replaced by bad taste and aggressiveness. Avoid undergoing surgical procedures or beauty treatments to enhance your physical appearance. Do not begin or expect to make progress in redecorating projects or any activities that involve diplomacy, art, or music. If you are traveling, do not expect to encounter amiable company along the way. Your work and other physical efforts are best accomplished alone. Even if you could make more progress with the assistance of others, it may be a case of current circumstances that force you to engage in solitary actions. Energy is wasted on debate, negotiation, legal matters, and counseling. If the potentially negative influence of this period fails to appear or disrupt your routine, count yourself fortunate.

Transit MARS square natal Mars

Oct 17 through Oct 20, exact on Oct 19

The raw energy in your present environment is stimulating, but the tension it also implies can bring anger and frustration that slow down efforts to get things done. Everyone may be too busy to pay enough attention to helping anyone else. It is not the time for indecisive actions or you run the risk that others will attain the success you had hoped to achieve. This period is one of a decidedly masculine influence. The methods needed are apt to require physical strength, and the energy with which they are performed must be rough and aggressive-- making up in forcefulness and determination for what may be lacking in caution or refinement.

Transit MARS trine natal Jupiter

Oct 18 through Oct 21, exact on Oct 19

Unless negative circumstances also occur at this time and discourage the otherwise potential benefits of this period, your general status will greatly improve. Success is apt to be the result of just about anything you attempt. Efforts rarely come to nothing under this influence. Even a failed effort is likely to result in some better prospect. This is definitely the time to promote and demonstrate the position and knowledge you have achieved. You are highly favored in activities that involve long-distance travel, writing, publishing, theater, dance, art, religion, politics, law, investment and finances, and sports. Gambles and other risk-taking ventures are likely to pay off. Men in your life, especially a male parent, are also favored at this time-- and your own good fortune may also come through them. This is a period in which to grab and savor everything that brings enjoyment, humor, truth, and the good life. Do not however, let overconfidence in your own ability, the pursuit of pleasure, or laziness spoil the potential success of enterprises.

Transit MARS sextile natal Uranus

Oct 24 through Oct 27, exact on Oct 25

Physical circumstances during this period may give you a chance to introduce a change or new concepts into some aspect of your life or the lives of others. This influence implies opportunity to take advantage of new or nontraditional methods, as well as situations that give you a chance to demonstrate unique methods that you have devised. Other potentials include circumstances that allow you to change current methods, machinery, or mechanical devices in such a way that more people will be able to take advantage of them. Either that, or you have a chance to benefit from such changes that were made by others. Taking advantage of the energy of this influence, you may be able to inspire and coordinate group efforts to accomplish certain tasks.

Transit JUPITER trine natal Sun

Oct 20 through Oct 30, exact on Oct 25

The increased potential for fortunate circumstances during this period, may bring you honor, recognition, and just plain good luck. Ego-gratifying experiences are what this influence is all about. Your ambitions and goals expand and there is an excellent chance you will succeed in attaining them. The sphere of your personal influence grows with minimum effort on your part. If you want to attain a position of leadership, this would definitely be a time to surge ahead with such a goal. Your generosity, integrity, and courage are not only enhanced by current circumstances, but these traits will be recognized and admired by others. As with all good fortune, however, there is danger of misusing it. You may feel too content with yourself or overconfident that things are going well. Taking things too much for granted, you may be prompted to do nothing to change the status quo and thereby miss the advantages that may have come your way. Though most situations you encounter will no doubt be fortunate, some of the luck implied during this period may also be a case of keeping a bad situation from being worse than it might otherwise have been. An example would be someone who is passed over for a promotion to supervisor; a seemingly unfortunate situation. However, two days later all the supervisors are fired.

Transit NEPTUNE sextile natal Venus

Aug 27 through Dec 27, station on Oct 29

Though long-term, this is not a particularly strong influence. It may have some significance if you are consciously aware of its potential and other planetary influences come along to support it. The targets of this period are partnerships and alliances, relationships with women in general, social contacts, and romantic encounters-- either new ones or current ones. Though weak, this influence is nevertheless a positive one. It suggests that by taking advantage of some element of imagination, mystery, glamor, illusion, or spirituality that exists in the current circumstances, you can be more successful in your relationships, interactions with others in general, legal matters, contract negotiations, and social activities.

Transit JUPITER opposed natal Pluto

Oct 26 through Nov 4, exact on Oct 31

Power and success are seductive traps during this period. These things can also be grossly mismanaged or overrated. People and situations that promise greater personal influence or an opportunity to manipulate something to your own advantage are to be avoided. Once this period has ended, if such people or situations are still around, there will be time enough to consider or take advantage of their offer. It is important to realize that you will probably not be able to remove the forces that oppose your power or influence or that stand in the way of your gaining such things. This only leaves you the option of finding a constructive way to work around them or with them. This is not a favorable time for matters that involve inheritance, taxes, insurance, and debt.

Transit MARS opposed natal Neptune

Nov 2 through Nov 5, exact on Nov 4

Efforts are apt to come to nothing, or at least not accomplish the purpose for which they were intended. This unfortunate potential should not become an excuse to remain totally idle, since many efforts that are carried out on a daily or routine basis are not necessarily threatened during this period. However, the prospect of erosion chipping away at the available physical energy and enthusiasm would suggest that it is not wise to invest your time and efforts in new activities or vague, disorganized projects. Under this influence charitable acts can be misguided. Work methods are inept, inefficient, or incorrect. Water sports pose the risk of danger, as do fishing trips, ocean cruises, and work that involves photography, gas, oil, and explosive or corrosive chemicals. It is not a favorable time for you to try new medication, take an anesthetic, alcohol, and drugs. Illusion and deception are constant threats. This influence has a strong potential for surprise attack. Be alert but not paranoid.

Transit JUPITER sextile natal Mars

Nov 5 through Nov 14, exact on Nov 10

Opportunity these days may come in the form of a chance for employment, to engage in physical competition, or to increase your energy and physical strength. The people and situations you encounter may not automatically hand you such chances, so you may have to manipulate current circumstances to create them for yourself. Under this influence it is your physical efforts and actions that eventually lead to success. For this reason it would seem worthwhile to be as physically enthusiastic and industrious as possible in every situation.

Transit JUPITER square natal Jupiter

Nov 8 through Nov 17, exact on Nov 12

This influence is likely to pass without significant occurrence. It may nevertheless be considered as a time to curb any undue tendency on your part to find optimism where none is warranted. You are tempted to think that certain unpleasant situations would not occur if only you were wealthier, more prominent, or more knowledgeable. If you allow such foolishness to discourage you from tackling obstacles and getting things accomplished, you have only yourself to blame. Skip the excuses and cynicism and you'll get much further than you think.

Transit SATURN square natal Pluto

Oct 28 through Dec 25, exact on Nov 16 & Dec 25

Too much intensity or contrivance to manipulate can hamper certain situations these days. The influence is subtle and may pass unnoticed unless power or control is an issue in whatever you happen to be doing. Psychological factors may block attempts to clearly analyze matters at hand. Getting around the frustrations is possible by immediately slowing down and allowing yourself more time to gain through shrewd observation what cannot be accomplished by open confrontation.

Transit MARS trine natal Sun

Nov 25 through Nov 28, exact on Nov 26

This can be an ego-boosting period in which you feel more confident that your efforts will be successful. In turn, this is the kind of attitude that attracts the people and success you are looking for. Self-promotion works very well, as does using the efforts of others to your own advantage. Other potentials imply that your physical efforts--whatever they may be-- may bring you recognition or a position of leadership, and that you may be more generous in helping others. Though this influence increases vitality, it can also promote a certain amount of laziness. If you are by nature a less-than-energetic individual, this period is not likely to galvanize you into action. It may be your good fortune however, to get others to do the work for you. Some of the most highly favored activities include those that involve men or products and services related to men, military maneuvers, sports, surgical procedures, manufacturing, and firearms. Just plain good luck can save you from accidents and other mishaps. The only word of warning is not to take things too much for granted, or become too sure of yourself.

Transit MARS opposed natal Pluto

Nov 27 through Nov 30, exact on Nov 28

Opposing forces you encounter during this period have a paralyzing effect. A contest of wills is to be avoided at all costs. Efforts to gain control of any kind are apt to produce the opposite effect. This is not a time to change or interfere with the status quo of things. Deliberately engaging the hostility of another is to arouse a formidable opponent you might not otherwise have had to confront. Manipulations are a waste of time which doesn't leave much except the direct approach, a method with the same potential result. If you realize that the current circumstances are likely to present no means at all to gain the upper hand or maneuver situations to your advantage, you are correct. Act accordingly.

Transit JUPITER square natal Uranus

Nov 25 through Dec 4, exact on Nov 29

Meetings of any kind can be difficult for you to organize or coordinate under this influence. Though a spirit of generosity and togetherness seems to be encouraged by current circumstances, too many people going off in too many different directions makes accomplishing group efforts more difficult to organize in spite of everyone's good intentions. Progress can be made toward attaining common goals or resolving disputes, but most likely only by letting others do their own thing independently and then bringing all the separate efforts together.

Transit MARS sextile natal Mars

Nov 30 through Dec 3, exact on Dec 1

People and situations you encounter or that you attract at this time are likely to help you accomplish physical tasks. Opportunity that others give you is apt to also directly or indirectly help them accomplish their own physical goals. This is a period when the attitude of “you scratch my back and I’ll scratch yours” is the most successful approach to getting things done-- and it keeps everyone busy. Under this influence the more physical energy you use, the more you will generate. Accomplishing one task will lead to another.

Transit MARS square natal Jupiter

Dec 1 through Dec 4, exact on Dec 2

A certain amount of restlessness and lack of attention to detail in your actions during this period may be the consequence of responding too much to “the big picture”. Increased tendency to overreach may result in your having to pay the consequences for exaggeration and extravagant gestures. Do not be tempted to accept more work than you are physically capable of handling, or assignments for which you lack the proper skills or experience. Do not take risks if you cannot afford to suffer the consequences of the potential loss. The point to remember (and possibly avoid while under this influence) is that your tendency toward expansive gestures, to whatever that trait exists in your nature and personality, will be enhanced. If your gestures are prudent you will overcome whatever physical obstacles block your path. Whether or not you succeed, at least you will not walk away empty handed.

Transit MARS square natal Uranus

Dec 6 through Dec 9, exact on Dec 8

Present circumstances may put you into such a tense or aggravated state as to cause you to do something you would not ordinarily do. Because this influence implies rash as well as unpredictable actions, caution is advised during this period. Keep in mind that not only are your actions unpredictable but also their consequences, that is, whatever you hope to gain by them is not likely to be what results. The performance of machinery and equipment, as well as that of the people who may work for or with you, is also unpredictable at this time. Expect to encounter some snags when you attempt to make changes in work schedules or introduce new methods.

Transit JUPITER trine natal Mercury

Dec 3 through Dec 12, exact on Dec 8

The fortunate circumstances promised during this period involve broadening your intellectual horizons, developing new skills, and seeking new experiences. Communications increase and you are inundated with information and opinions. You are filled with new ideas of your own as well as with enthusiasm and desire to express them one way or another. Though success may not be dropped in your lap, you are certain to run into it if you are involved in higher education, writing, publishing, computers, acting, political or religious activities, travel, broadcasting, direct-mail, advertising, or the law. Your appreciation for speed as well as luxury increases, which in turn may tempt you to buy a sports car or first-class airline tickets. There is more merriment and humor in your environment these days. Good fortune and increased contacts involve siblings and neighbors. Business prospers under this influence, and if it happens to be a neighborhood business, so much the better.

Transit MARS trine natal Mercury

Dec 9 through Dec 12, exact on Dec 10

A surge of physical energy and enthusiasm may prompt you to turn thoughts or ideas into actions--the results of which can be very successful. Sales, installation and repair of machinery or equipment are highly favored. Sales of any kind are likely to be more energetic and successful. This also applies to travel, activities and meetings, and the physical dissemination of information. Work that is done or business that is owned or operated by you and/or your siblings is likely to flourish at this time, especially if the job or business is in your neighborhood. Under this influence good fortune or good news comes through the mail or by telephone. This is an auspicious period for writing, designing, buying a car or other motorized vehicles, or developing your mechanical or computer skills.

Transit MARS trine natal Saturn

Dec 10 through Dec 13, exact on Dec 12

You are apt to have more patience during this period. If you require more time to accomplish a certain task, it will be granted. Maturity and experience behind your actions is one of the keys to the successful results they bring. If you fail to apply such wisdom in a given situation, you may nevertheless benefit from the actions of those who do. This is one of the most favorable of influences-- not only for the potential success of your efforts but because they are likely to be meaningful, long-lasting accomplishments. It is an auspicious time to initiate projects that are geared toward bringing benefits at a later time in your life.

Transit JUPITER trine natal Saturn

Dec 8 through Dec 17, exact on Dec 13

Though this is a very fortunate influence, its impact will necessarily be modified by the appropriateness of your age, maturity, and past experiences and activities. Current circumstances can bring the satisfaction as well as the rewards of your hard work, organization, and careful planning. If you have lacked the willingness or ability to carry these things out in the past, you may find it easier to do so now thereby ensuring your success in the future. There are other possibilities. Benefits may come because of your seniority or authority. Under this influence restrictions and responsibilities can be eased, perhaps even disappear.

Transit MARS conjoined natal Moon

Dec 25 through Dec 27, exact on Dec 26

Your pulse quickens and feelings lie much closer to the surface these days. Anger or frustration may incite you to throw temper tantrums, or the surge of emotional energy may inspire you to demonstrate your love and affection, depending on current circumstances. What can be expected, however, is that any exhibition of your feelings--positive or negative--is sure to be physically energetic. As the pace of life picks up, family relationships and domestic activities are apt to be the main focus of physical efforts. By choice or circumstance you may decide to give a dinner party, clean the house, make home repairs, build an addition on to your home or a barbecue pit in the back yard, or move to another residence altogether. If you are impulsive by nature, it is likely to be accentuated during this period by increased tendencies to turn feelings into physical action. Inattention, restlessness, and a greater need for haste may have unpleasant consequences for you, your children, or other family members. Avoid driving too fast, and take precautions when using sharp instruments or handling flammable materials (especially household materials). When cooking and baking be careful to monitor the time and temperature you use, or your dish may be overdone or burned to a crisp. Check your home for possible fire hazards. The heating or cooling system of your home or car may require repairs or replacement. Make an effort to protect yourself, especially from excessive insect bites, bleeding, colitis, ulcers, digestive upsets, and insomnia.

Transit MARS trine natal Venus

Dec 28 through Dec 31, exact on Dec 30

Unless negative circumstances also happen to occur and strongly indicate caution, this is an excellent time for a haircut, beauty treatment, dental work, or cosmetic surgery. Under this influence your actions and gestures are likely to be more graceful and elegant; literally as well as figuratively. The social scene is abuzz and everyone is animated and attractive. Romance, partnership, and other alliances flourish. This is a time to do things with others-- cooperative efforts may be able to accomplish what you have not been able to do by yourself. Activities that involve art, design, music, jewelry, flowers, the beauty business, debate, and legal matters are favored.

Transit MARS square natal Sun

Jan 6 through Jan 9, 2007, exact on Jan 7

You may be touchier than usual when others impinge on your territory, challenge your authority, and question your methods. Whether you stick to your way of doing things or decide to follow the suggestions of others, your desire for personal accomplishment is apt to be very strong during this period. You seek ego-gratification from the final result of your efforts, not from the methods you used to accomplish it. Tension may rise when dealing with male companions or co-workers. Under this influence, the success of your efforts is likely to be delayed as a consequence of actions that are unnecessarily aggressive or too hasty. Having found a way to restrain these tendencies, and applying determination and patience, you will accomplish far more than you anticipated. During this period take precautions in all your physical efforts in order to avoid injury to your head or face, or putting too much strain on your heart and spine.

Transit MARS sextile natal Jupiter

Jan 12 through Jan 14, exact on Jan 13

Present circumstances may bring opportunity to demonstrate your knowledge or expertise. Creating your own opportunity to show off is also likely to lead to success. This period favors taking advantage of people and situations in ways that will eventually lead to advancement in your professional status, broader intellectual horizons, attainment of cultural pursuits, greater spiritual awareness, success in sports, realization of political ambitions, or international travel. Under this influence your physical efforts may give you a chance to enjoy the good life, move up the social ladder, publish a book or other material, exhibit your sense of humor, or participate in theatrical productions.

Transit PLUTO sextile natal Jupiter

Dec 17, 2006 through Feb 17, 2007, exact on Jan 13

The influence surrounding you during this period is not strong or dynamic enough to cause much change unless it is supplemented by the occurrence of other factors and circumstances that encourage its energy and particular focus. The energy of the influence is favorable, however, and is represented by an opportunity to gain power or control, to revitalize or renovate something that has been lost, or to make a new start. Knowing there is a certain amount of favorable energy available, it is then up to you to be on the lookout for possibilities that may come along, and to take advantage of them when they do. You can also use the people and circumstances you encounter to create your own opportunities. All that has just been described relates during this period on the one hand to your personal sense of optimism and inspiration, and on the other hand, to your interest in such areas as higher education, politics, advertising, publishing, drama, diplomacy, religion, cultural pursuits and projects, philanthropy and endowment-- and to situations that will eventually lead to your participation or success in these areas.

Transit MARS trine natal Uranus

Jan 17 through Jan 19, exact on Jan 18

Actions you take during this period can have some unusual or unexpected results. It is difficult to predict what will happen but the potential is for the outcome to be very beneficial. Under this influence you may be inspired to do something unique or quite out of character-- though again, such actions are apt to have fortunate consequences. Unless other circumstances discourage the otherwise fortunate potential, it is a good time to introduce changes in work schedule, implement new methods and procedures, and to deal with technical equipment, computers, and inventions. Travel by air, activities with friends, and organizing group efforts are other favored activities.

Transit MARS square natal Mercury

Jan 19 through Jan 22, exact on Jan 21

Too much haste or aggressiveness causes tempers to flare. Expect to encounter argumentative males, aggressive drivers, and frustration when trying to put ideas into action or implement new work methods. Check your work place for faulty wiring and possible fire hazards. Wrong directions, bad weather, and other physical obstacles can slow you down when traveling or interfere with the flow of information and other communications. During this period caution is advised to prevent possible burns or cuts, especially to your fingers and hands. In spite of all these potential problems, there is abundant and stimulating energy available. Even if initially aroused by anger or frustration, this energy can, with just a little effort, be rechanneled into positive accomplishments.

Jan 21 through Jan 23, exact on Jan 22

The difficulties and delays you encounter during this period are likely to be caused by lack of preparation, planning, and organization--either on your part or that of others. The maddening thing is that even if you are the most careful individual, you are apt to be caught just when things are in disarray, or, just when you need something, it cannot be located in time. Bad timing is, in fact, one of the biggest obstacles to progress. Under this influence others may physically resist or even threaten your seniority or position of authority-- nor are you likely to take it graciously when they do. The best part of the present circumstances is the potential that you will eventually succeed, even if it is because maturity and experience dictates that you keep on going until everything goes as it should.

Transit MARS trine natal Neptune

Jan 26 through Jan 28, exact on Jan 27

This is a period to use your intuitive abilities, increase your spiritual awareness, investigate dreams and the occult, and carry out as much of your work and other physical activities as possible behind the scenes. Exactly how or by what means some task or achievement is accomplished may not be apparent, nor does it have to be. The successful result such actions are likely to produce will be clear enough to make everybody happy. Some of the most successful work and other physical activities during this period involve in one aspect or another such areas as arts and entertainment (especially dance), photography, charitable institutions, drugs, alcohol, oil, gas, marine life, water sports, and ocean cruises.

Transit JUPITER conjoined natal Moon

Jan 29 through Feb 10, exact on Feb 4

Emotional levels expand under this influence and your desires can become quite grand. You may effortlessly gain greater emotional commitment from those with whom you share close relationships and have no trouble attracting love and affection from many others as well. Emotional satisfaction can be found in practically everything. But not everything is necessarily desirable or practical. Too much physical pleasure in food, for example, can result in gaining weight. You may seek higher social status, and get it. However, in seeking to improve your popularity, you may indulge in extravagant spending and accumulating material possessions-- all the better to gain the admiration and approbation of others. This is an excellent period if your business or interests involve the purchase and sale of luxury items, real estate, and domestic items and items related specifically to women or children. Your residence may be upgraded and your domestic environment may prosper from a greater appreciation of education, spirituality or culture. A female parent as well as your children should also prosper at this time.

Transit MARS square natal Venus

Feb 7 through Feb 10, exact on Feb 8

Social activities, partnership, cooperative efforts, romantic adventures, diplomatic maneuvers, and legal negotiations can be successful under this influence, but the potential is that these endeavors will not proceed altogether smoothly. Jealousy, envy, and insensitivity are factors that must be avoided or eliminated when they appear. Another way to minimize the negative potential of this period is to tone down aggressiveness and promote an impression of harmony and cooperation. If life were to imitate art under this influence, the message would be not to choose colors that blend, instead choose colors that go well because of the contrast they make with each other. There is much that can be stimulating and exciting in the course of your physical efforts and interactions with others during this period.

Transit MARS sextile natal Sun

Feb 16 through Feb 18, exact on Feb 17

Use opportunities presented by current circumstances to take physical actions; advantageous actions that can eventually lead to furthering your career or to gaining recognition of your individuality and talent. Do not pass up a chance to demonstrate courage, integrity, and loyalty, or to vigorously defend your principles. The ultimate ego satisfaction you get or goals you attain during this period may come through men or a male individual, or from being in situations that may be described as competitive or aggressive. Success is also most likely to result from being a doer, which means you cannot sit around waiting for things to happen. You need to put yourself physically in different situations, participate in a variety of activities, and circulate among a wide variety of people in order to attract the kind of opportunity you're looking for.

Transit MARS trine natal Pluto

Feb 17 through Feb 20, exact on Feb 19

Research and investigation flourish during this period. You can really get to the bottom of things with the help of the intense, focused energy that surrounds you. Psychological analysis, assessment of property, and financial investments are infused with a physical focus that gives keener perception to the intellectual efforts involved in these matters. Under this influence you have all the control you need if you do not take it for granted, and you recognize how to apply its subtle but deadly accurate force. Your recuperative powers, should you need them, are at a high level.

Transit JUPITER trine natal Venus

Feb 14 through Mar 2, exact on Feb 21

If it's romance you seek, it's romance you'll find. If it's more of a social life you want, a more active social life is what you'll get. If you are looking for a suitable partner or ally, just the right person is apt to come along. And if they already have, this is an excellent time to marry, form a business partnership, and begin joint ventures of any kind. Other fortunate potentials of your current circumstances include success related to contracts and other legal matters, consultations, public relations, and diplomatic endeavors. Decisions are in your favor. Female friendships are enthusiastic and enjoyable. The enhancement of your sense of humor, capacity for enjoyment, and cooperative spirit should be sufficient to bring you a measure of success in almost any situation you encounter. In spite of the fortunate prospects, there are certain negative potentials to avoid. Desire for wealth and luxury may be so strong as to tempt you to reach beyond your means or compromise yourself in some other way. Overindulgence in the pursuit of pleasure has some pitfalls, not the least of which involves a wide range of minor physical complaints and illness. On the whole, however, you should prosper in many ways during this period.

Transit MARS conjoined natal Mars

Feb 20 through Feb 23, exact on Feb 21

The extremely active, potentially chaotic, circumstances during this period can literally as well as figuratively give you a headache. Under this very energetic, sometimes overly aggressive, influence everyone is likely to be busier than usual, and that includes you. It will be difficult to find passive participants in almost any situation. A new two-year cycle of energy begins for you. A period suggesting that by choice or circumstances, you will initiate new directions and new ventures.

Transit MARS sextile natal Mercury

Feb 28 through Mar 3, exact on Mar 2

Current circumstances imply opportunity to physically touch base with others-- to exchange ideas and information. Contacts and activities with neighbors and/or siblings are apt to be especially stimulating, physically as well as mentally. Advantageous circumstances may present you with a chance to initiate projects related to writing, direct-mail promotions, or publishing. You may run across a bargain that leads to the purchase or sale of a car or other vehicle. A chance to travel may also come your way. Valuable information or ideas may be waiting for you if you take an opportunity to catch up on correspondence and reading. Take advantage of any situation that allows you to use or develop mechanical, computer, or artistic skills. Meetings and discussion groups can provide a forum for you to inspire others to take affirmative action, or, perhaps your participation in such get-togethers will stimulate you to take such action.

Transit URANUS square natal Moon

Feb 13 through Mar 20, exact on Mar 2

This period is apt to mean instability with regard to home and family, as well as a certain amount of confusion in your emotional life in general. Circumstances are unpredictable and what may be worse, they are not likely to be under your control. It is the actions and decisions of others that intrude on your commitment to relationships and the amount of involvement you are willing to devote to other personal endeavors. The only options left open to you are to control your reactions to a situation and, of course, the way you choose to handle it. To describe the potential circumstances of this period as a test is appropriate since that is all it may be. This influence does not necessarily signal an end to your relationships and your desires or the chance to fulfill them, but it can cause you to be confused about them. Probably the best advice is to stay flexible in the face of changing circumstances. Hold on to what has always been and continue to be a source of emotional satisfaction. Your health may be affected by increased restlessness, nerves, irritability, and digestive disorders. Children in your life are apt to be unpredictable, you may experience sudden separation from them, or they may be difficult to control. Under this influence it is better to regard the status of relationships, emotional commitments, domestic arrangements, and even where you reside as vulnerable to sudden or unexpected changes. If possible avoid taking important actions that will influence your future happiness, since these changes may not be as permanent as you anticipate.

Transit MARS sextile natal Saturn

Mar 2 through Mar 4, exact on Mar 3

If you are a well-prepared, organized individual with definite goals, you are in the best position to take advantage of opportunities that come along during this period. Nor should you hesitate to go out and deliberately create opportunities to demonstrate your experience and maturity. If you are not such a highly structured, goal-oriented individual, the people and situations you encounter under this influence can offer you the inspiration you need to become better organized, and help you to lay a more solid foundation for the type of success you wish to achieve. This period represents a chance to take advantage of any seniority or position of authority you have in order to get something done.

Transit MARS square natal Neptune

Mar 7 through Mar 9, exact on Mar 8

Your actions during this period may very well be inspired, but they are not apt to be organized, well-planned or carefully executed. The shortest distance between two points is not likely to be the expected straight line. The present atmosphere is not conducive to logical actions, though you may find plenty of rationalizations for the actions you do take. You will have to make a determined effort if you wish to avoid wasting time and energy. Methods used to accomplish something must depend on intuition and instinct, since there may be little else to go on. Under this influence there is a certain amount of danger due to inattention, or because you may simply be unaware of potentially perilous situations. Laziness is another potential obstacle you may have to overcome.

Transit MARS sextile natal Moon

Mar 15 through Mar 18, exact on Mar 17

You may get the opportunity to turn feelings into physical actions or to physically express your emotions. If you are involved in creative or artistic activities your efforts now may ultimately lead to successful exhibitions of your work, to greater emotional satisfaction from physically expressing your talent, or a chance to successfully represent the talents of others. If your interest and instincts are aroused-- follow their lead. Current circumstances may bring a chance to promote family relationships and activities or to accomplish domestic tasks. Your children or other family members may be given an opportunity to work or to compete in sports events or other competition. Do not pass up the chance to invite male companions, family members, and business associates to dine. Avoid future problems with appliances and machinery by taking time now to repair them or provide the routine maintenance they require.

Transit MARS sextile natal Venus

Mar 19 through Mar 21, exact on Mar 20

Opportunities that may lead to romance, social activities, partnership, and joint ventures are potentials implied by this period. There is no guarantee that such potentials will automatically come your way. Success is more likely to be the result of deliberately putting yourself in situations that generate such opportunities. This favorable influence encourages you to help others attain their goals, and in return, you will be able to ask for their assistance in your own efforts. Legal matters, contract negotiations, enhancement of your physical appearance, and artistic projects may eventually be successful as a result of opportunities offered by present circumstances.
